

Making Critical Connections Happen. Worldwide.

For more than a quarter of a century Griffin has built a reputation as the most respected travel specialist for the marine and offshore industries. With more locations, more reach, and more ways to save you time and money, Griffin delivers the resources to get your people in place, on time, worldwide.

Bringing Reliability and Control to an Uncertain World

Since being established in 1977 in the key shipping centres of Athens and London, Griffin has developed a worldwide network of strategically located offices. All are either wholly owned or Griffin-managed joint ventures, under the control of the parent company, the Griffin Global Group.

The Group is under the ownership of employee-shareholders, a model unique in the industry, ensuring the ability to generate and control common best practice processes and the highest standards of service, worldwide.

Demonstrating our commitment to guaranteeing this quality is that all offices are either ISO 9001:2000 accredited, or due to become so. This all translates to an unrivalled ability to bring reliability and control to our clients' travel requirements.
